bout Kanda Fruit Process Company:

Kanda Fruits Process Company (KANDA FRUIT) is one of the largest fruits and vegetable processing and packaging private limited organizations, in Afghanistan. A group of different legal entities/projects, called Kanda Group, works jointly along a value addition chain, starting right from farmers to end consumers: Kanda Groups is an umbrella for a number of Afghan companies/projects that have been working in areas of food processing/cold chain facilities, large-scale agricultural complexes, food quality and safety certification, import of agricultural tools and equipment, fumigation of products/places, basket production, and modernization of the agriculture industry in Afghanistan.

KANDA FRUIT has a considerable volume of business with GCC and Regional countries. We trade Afghan agricultural products on a large scale and are also the franchise of reputable international brands in Afghanistan i.e. Mahindra Mahindra and Fieldking.

Kanda Group extended its area of operation to Canada, USA, and Australia outside the country and to Kabul, Nangarhar, Herat, Balkh, and other potential markets inside the country.
