About Afghan Family Guidance Association (AFGA):

Afghan Family Guidance Association (AFGA) is an Afghan non-governmental, not-for-profit and non-political organization established in 1968. AFGA has been working in the field of Reproductive health and Rights since its inception and has recently become an associate member of the International Planned Parenthood Federation (IPPF).

AFGA activities were suspended due to war and conflict in the country for ten years (1992-2002) and resumed its activities in 2002 with financial support from International Planned Parenthood Federation (IPPF).

IPPF is an alliance of 151 family planning associations known as Member Associations which has projects in over 180 countries. IPPF continues to be the largest civil society provider of reproductive health information and services in the world

Job Description:

Job Summary:

Under the overall supervision of the FHH supervisor, the FHH midwife will be responsible for providing 24/7 RMNCAH services in FHHs. She will be contributing to health services provision in the community-based health facility with more focus on reproductive health. As per the project donor (UNFPA) and AFGA strategic plan, the FHH midwife will be contributing to health services access improvement through close engagement with the targeted community through health shura members, family health action group (FHAG), and CHWs.

Specific Responsibilities:

- Providing 24/7 health services on a community basis through FHHs particularly to women during pregnancy, delivery, and post-partum phase.
- Contributing to the provision of efficient and respectful health care to people particularly women at the age of childbearing and girls.
- Practicing evidence-based midwifery care through applying her knowledge and skills to meet the needs of women and their families.
- Providing high-quality reproductive health, family planning, PSS, breast and cervical cancer counseling to the client during their admission to FHH.
- Maintain, update, and improvement of professional and personal knowledge and skills to provide quality, acceptable, and accessible services to clients.
- Providing appropriate supervision and advance care to women during pregnancy, delivery, and post-partum phases.
- Conducting regular meetings with women and their family members regarding FHH activities, providing health promotion activities, and receiving community feedback regarding FHH available services and further services improvement.
- Provision of regular and scheduled health education to the community members particularly women regarding most relevant health issues (breastfeeding, hygiene promotion, family planning, etc.)
- Performing normal and assisted delivery by herself to ensure that quality lifesaving services are available to all.
- Performing newborn care and services in FHH as per standard procedures.
- Contributing to the services of basic emergency obstetric care management and referral services in FHH.
- Screening of obstetric complications and situations during her duty in FHH particularly exploring obstetric fistula and similar situations and referring out certain cases.
- Maintain and holding of all records and reports of FHH daily activities by registering and recording in the standard HMIS formats.
- Preparing monthly FHHs activities related reports sharing with the supervisor and entering all the data into the KOBO system.
- Supervising CHWs for their activities in the field, regular meetings with CHWs and community members, and collecting their reports for inclusion in the FHH monthly report.
- Contributing to all types of controlling activities as needed (supporting monitoring team, supervision activities, and any field assessment activity).
- Preparing updated FHH activities graphs and visual documents for easy understanding of any party visiting the FHH.
- Updating, maintaining, and keeping all supplies related documents in the FHHs (stock cards, registers, and consumption reports of pharmacy section)
- Performing IP-related activities in FHHs including medical equipment and instruments sterilization and keeping the FHH area clean as per standard IP procedures.
- Performing screening of women and children for nutrition status, providing counseling, and referring identified malnutrition cases to upper health facilities.
- Providing counseling regarding vaccination of women and children and referring clients to vaccination services in case of unavailability of vaccine services in the FHH.
- Any other task determined by the supervisor.
